

Data Protection Compliance

For this virtual symposium, the video conference program "Zoom" will be used. "Zoom" is a service of Zoom Video Communications, Inc., based in the USA. For participation, registration with your real name on Zoom is necessary.

In order to conduct this virtual symposium, video conferencing provider Zoom will process your data. Processed data contains at least your full name as well as the following information provided by you, e.g.:

- Phone number, if you use your phone for participation, or
- Video and/or voice statements, if you actively participate in the discussion, or
- Messages, if you use the chat function.

Zoom potentially processes your data in the United States as well. Since the decision of the European Court of Justice of July 16, 2020, the US has been considered a third country with insufficient levels of data protection (monitoring by US authorities with no sufficient judicial review) by the EU.

The whole event, including chat, messages and voice statements will be recorded and uploaded to the JDZB YouTube channel. Additionally, we will report on the symposium and may publish pictures, video excerpts and statements in JDZB-media including social media such as Facebook, the JDZB website, and the JDZB newsletter.

Your personal data will also be saved in the JDBZ data base, processed and possibly be forwarded to the cooperation partners of this event.

The legal basis for the processing of the data is based on Article 6, paragraph 1 (a) and Article 49 (1) lit a) of the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR).

In case you would like to participate in this event, we therefore kindly ask you to give us your consent for this. With your consent you accept our rules of data protection.

You can revoke your consent at any time without giving reasons with effect for the future by mail to dataprotection@jdz.de or by post to JDZB, Datenschutz, Saargemünder Str. 2, 14195 Berlin.

You have the right to access, rectify and delete according to Article 15-20 GDPR (dataprotection@jdz.de) and the right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority.
