Program for the Conference

Resource Competition and Power Balance in East Asia
An EU-Japan Perspective

March 2, 2007, at the Japanese-German Center Berlin

Welcome
Friederike BOSSE (Japanese-German Center Berlin, JDZB)

Introductory Remarks: Energy and Security Policy in a Global Perspective
Viktor ELBLING (Federal Foreign Office)
HONDA Etsurō (Ministry of Foreign Affairs)
NEZU Risaburō (Fujitsu Research Institute, FRI)

Session 1: Energy and Competition for Resources: Challenges for the EU and Japan
Chair: HONDA Etsurō (Ministry of Foreign Affairs)

The Future of Resource Competition and Energy Cooperation in East Asia
TAKEISHI Reiji (Fujitsu Research Institute, FRI)

Common Stakes for the EU, Japan and China: Pressure on Natural Resources and Energy Competition in East Asia
Gerhard LOHAN (European Commission)

Energy and Competition of Resources: Russia’s Role between Europe and East Asia
Roland GÖTZ (German Institute for International and Security Affairs, SWP)

Q&A
Session 2: Working Together: Regional Policy and Resource Cooperation
Chair: Sebastian BERSICK (European Institute for Asian Studies, EIAS)

East Asia Cooperation and Security Strategy
JIMBO Ken (Keio University)

Toward Energy Security: Options for Resource Cooperation
Maria SICILIA (International Energy Agency, IEA)

Renewables, Energy Efficiency, Greening, Clean Technologies, Regulatory Convergence . . . A Natural Avenue for Win-Win Cooperation between Japan and the EU?
Oliver SCHÄFER (European Renewable Energy Council, EREC)

Q&A

Session 3: The Impact of Corporate Strategies and Private Interests
Chair: NEZU Risaburō (Fujitsu Research Institute, FRI)

China's Energy Strategy and Emerging Major Oil Companies
JIN Jianmin (Fujitsu Research Institute, FRI)

China, Resources, and Beyond: Chances for Corporations in Asia’s Integrating Market
Martin SCHULZ (Fujitsu Research Institute, FRI)

Linking Economic Partnership and Private Investment with Energy and Security Policy
Hans VAN DER LOO (Royal Dutch Shell PLC)

Final Discussion: Options for the EU and Japan
Chair: Joern KECK (formerly European Commission)