

JAPANESE-GERMAN CENTER BERLIN [JDZB]
FRIEDRICH-EBERT-FOUNDATION [FES]
FUJITSU RESEARCH INSTITUTE [FRI]
in cooperation with
ECONOMIC RESEARCH CENTER, RIKKYO UNIVERSITY

Post-Kyoto and the “Green New Deal”
Green Opportunities for Japan, Germany and the US

Wednesday, June 10, 2009
at Tokyo International Forum, Hall D5
3-5-1 Marunouchi, Chiyoda-ku

13.00 h Welcome and Opening Remarks

Friederike BOSSE (Secretary General, JDZB)
Sven SAALER (FES, Japan Representative)
ABE Tadahiko (Executive Director, FRI)

13.15 h Keynotes: Post-Kyoto – New Targets, New Opportunities

KOIKE Yuriko (Member of the House of Representatives, former Minister of the Environment, Japan)

Matthias MACHNIG (State Secretary, German Federal Ministry for the Environment, Nature Conservation and Nuclear Safety)

Robert ORR (Chairman of The Panasonic Foundation, former President of Boeing Japan and member of the Obama Foreign Policy Network and Economy Group)

TAKAHASHI Yasuo (Director, Office of Market Mechanisms, Climate Change Policy Division, Ministry of the Environment, Japan)

14.15 h Discussion

Chair: TAKEUCHI Keiji (Senior Staff Writer, Asahi Shimbun)

15.00 h Coffee break

15.15 h Panel: Post-Kyoto and the Green New Deal

IIDA Tetsunari (Managing Director, Institute for Sustainable Energy Policy)

IKUTA Takafumi (FRI)

Martin JÄNICKE (Member of the Board, Bundesstiftung Umwelt)

Pavan SUKHDEV (Director, The Economics of Ecosystems and Biodiversity, UNEP)

Stacy D. VANDEVEER (Professor, University of New Hampshire)

16.30 h Panel Discussion and Q&A

Chair: Andrew DeWit (Director Economic Research Center, Rikkyo University, Tokyo)

17.15 h End