

JAPANESE-GERMAN CENTER BERLIN [JDZB]
KONRAD-ADENAUER-STIFTUNG [KAS]
KEIZAI KOHO CENTER [KKC]

PROGRAM

The Social Market Economy in Europe and its Implications for Japanese Businesses

18 June, 2010
at Keidanren Kaikan, Tokyo

- 14.00h Welcome Remarks<3min>
 Mr. Hiroshi NAKAYAMA (Managing Director and Secretary General, Keizai Koho Center)
- 14.03h Opening Remarks<3min + 3min>
 Dr. Colin DÜRKOP (Representative Korea & Japan, Konrad Adenauer Stiftung)
 Mr. Peter Rondorf (Minister, Head of Economic and Scientific Department, German Embassy)
- 14.10 h Keynote Speech I: The Social Market Economy in Europe
 Prof. Dr. Michael EILFORT (honorary Professor, Eberhard Karls University, Tübingen/ Board of the Market Economy Foundation Frankfurt) <30min>
- 14.40h Keynote Speech II: The Current Situation of Market Economy and Safety-net in Japan and their challenges
 Prof. Dr. Naohiro YASHIRO (Professor, International Christian University) <30min>
- 15.10 h Coffee break <10min>
- 15.20h Panel Discussion: The Balance between Free Competition and Safety-net under Global Competition
- 15.20 h Introductory Statement
 Dr. Martin SCHULZ (Economist, Fujitsu Research Institute) <15min>
 Prof. Dr. Sahoko KAJI (Keio University) <15min>
- 15.50 h Discussion <45min>
 Discussant:
 Prof. Dr. Michael EILFORT (honorary Professor, Eberhard Karls University, Tübingen/ Board
 Prof. Dr. Naohiro YASHIRO (International Christian University)
 Dr. Martin SCHULZ (Economist, Fujitsu Research Institute)
 Prof. Dr. Sahoko KAJI (Keio University) <15min>
 Moderator:
 Mr. Mikio SUGENO (Editorial Writer / Senior Staff Writer, Financial News Dept., NIKKEI Inc.)
- 16.35 h Q&A <15min>
- 16.50 h Closing Remarks <10min>
 Dr. Friederike BOSSE, Secretary General, Japanese-German Center Berlin
- 17.00 h End